"I am so proud of the work that our students were involved in with Arts, etc. Because of the direct involvement and generosity of this grant, our students were allowed the opportunity to explore their artistic talents and be recognized for such. When they see their work published in a wonderful book, they realize that not only do they have something real to say, but there are many of us that are always eager to listen."

Stephen Larson
Principal,
St. John's High School

"The arts experiences that Arts, etc. provides our school are transformative and invaluable! Our students participate in visual, performance and literary arts programming and are able to build contextual understanding and make connections back to their academic experiences. Learning becomes more engaging and exciting!... Thank you, Arts, etc. for bringing these experiences to our learners at Angel Oak Elementary! We are so thankful for the support of your donors."

Judith Condon
Principal,
Angel Oak Elementary
